

FOOD TRUCK OPERATING AGREEMENT

1. Required to maintain documentation of the necessary approvals from SC DHEC and any other agency documentation necessary to provide food services.
2. Required South Carolina Retail License.
3. Required to possess a current Town of Estill Business License as (a Hawker and Peddler License does not allow a mobile food service to stay in one location; it must be mobile) determined and issued by the Licensing Official.
4. Required to collect and remit Hospitality Taxes in the same manner as other food service enterprises.
5. Required to possess confirmation of permission from the owner (or authorized agent) of the property where the unit is parked. This permission should include a legible name, signature, and phone number of the authorizing individual.
6. The unit must be parked in a location that does not create traffic or safety problems and does not interfere with the activities of other businesses or otherwise interfere with other lawful activities or violate any statutes, ordinances, or other laws. Must immediately comply with requests or directives to relocate the unit for such reasons.
7. The vehicle cannot be left unattended or left at a sales site overnight.
8. Owner/operator is responsible for identifying suitable access to restrooms for employees.
9. Owner/operator is responsible for removing their garbage and keeping surroundings free from litter. Must provide own waste receptacles. No garbage is to be left onsite.
10. Assuming all conditions are met, truck / trailer can cater occasional private special events on private property within other zones. However, in those cases, sales should be limited to event attendees only (not to the general public).
11. Owners of Commercial properties are required to contact the Zoning Department and provide 3 copies of the site plan showing the area that the trucks will be parked, provide the sign off form from the fire marshal (Fire Safety Standard Form) and a narrative describing the proposed use.
12. The Town has identified locations within the unincorporated boundaries that are able to accommodate this type of business. There is no limit on how often a food truck can operate within a permitted area. The Town encourages operators to rotate among the permitted sites.

These conditions are subject to change as the town continues its review of the regulatory policies for this type of business activity. This agreement can be canceled at any time by the Town of Estill. Please sign below to indicate your understanding of the above and your commitment to operate within these guidelines.

Signature below acknowledges that this agreement does not create any right or vested interest in continuing this mobile food service business.
